

Fall 2018 Workshop Schedule

For more information on these events visit advance.unm.edu/events

Building a Career You Enjoy Workshop Series (Open to all faculty)

Mindfulness: Embracing the present in daily life

October 5, 11:30-1:00pm

ADVANCE at UNM Space

The new semester has arrived as have all the deadlines. Feeling overwhelmed? Take some time to take charge of your mental, emotional, and physical health. Counseling, Assistance, and Referral Services (CARS) practitioner, Vanessa Haye, will present on mindfulness. **Lunch provided.

Writing Boot Camp (Workshop)

Fall Semester (check website)

ADVANCE at UNM Space

Writing coach, Lynn Beene, provides activities, guidance, and support to faculty. This boot camp provides structure and opportunity to gain skills and perspective on writing projects encountered by faculty.

Writing Accountability Group

Fall Semester (check website)

ADVANCE at UNM Space

Writing can be a daunting task. Join a writing accountability group to establish a consistent writing habit, set writing goals, and create support to prevent falling into writing avoidance. This group will be supported by writing coach, Lynn Beene.

Success on Promotion & Tenure Trail (Open to all faculty)

Associate Professor Orientation: Succeeding with New Expectations

September 14, 11:00am-2:00pm

SUB Lobo A&B

How do you chair a committee? What should you think about when evaluating your colleagues' teaching? How do you write effective evaluations of promotion and tenure files? All of these and more are part of being an associate professor. Come get some tips on managing these new obligations. **Lunch provided.

Mid-Pro, Now What?

November 2, 12:00-1:30pm

SUB Santa Ana A&B

The next steps along the promotion trail, from assistant to associate, can be obscure. Come get perspective from our guest speakers to provide clarity as you move forward. **Lunch provided.

Research Success Series (Open to all faculty)

Research Proposals: From Idea to Submission

September 21, 12:00-1:30pm

SUB Lobo A&B

How do you navigate your research path at UNM? Where are the resources and contacts? Come meet some helpful staff from the Faculty Research Development Office and Sponsored Projects to keep you moving along the path to funding success at UNM. **Lunch provided.

Your Program Officer as a Guide

October 19, 12:00-1:30pm

SUB Acoma A&B

When should you contact your agency program officer? What information should be provided and what are you allowed to ask? Join a conversation with faculty panelists to learn how to have productive interactions with program officers from various agencies. **Lunch provided.

Working with the UNM Foundation

November 9, 12-1:30pm

ADVANCE at UNM space

UNM has access to non-profit funding opportunities through the UNM Foundation. Join Betsy Till, Senior Director of Development, in learning how the foundation can help you with research funding. **Lunch provided.

Faculty Research Development Hours

Oct. 23rd & Nov. 13th 2:00-4:00pm

ADVANCE at UNM space

Faculty Research Support Officers will follow up on related workshop topics (above) and provide hands-on help to support your research endeavors.

** Events require registration

For more information on these events visit advance.unm.edu/events